

AniVision Workshop 2025

“Exploring Digital Film Studies: Animation, Ephemeral Film and Visualization”

Schedule

Monday, September 29, 2025:

9:00 to 9:15	Arrival
9:15 to 9:30	Welcome & Opening
9:30 to 10:30	Scientific Speed Dating Getting to know other attendees and interest's exchange
10:30 to 10:45	Coffee break
10:45 to 12:15	Project Presentation “AniVision” Guided by the motto "We make animation visible!", the digital humanities project AniVision uses machine learning and computer vision to explore a hitherto marginalized area of the stylistic history of animation.
12:15 to 13:30	Lunch
13:30 to 15:00	Panel 1: Digital Tools Moderator: Armin Dadras Peter Bell: Moment and Moments in Christian Art. Computational Analysis of Pictorial Narratives Ralph Ewerth: Using the TIB AV Analytics platform for analysing disinformation patterns in news videos Josephine Diecke: VIAN Light: User-Friendly Video Annotation for Research and Teaching
15:00 to 15:30	Coffee break
15:30 to 17:00	Panel 2: Animation Moderator: Franziska Proksa Ewa Ciszewska: From Interviews to Open Data: Embodied Knowledge and Digital Tools in Animation Research Pavel Skopal & Terézia Porubčanská: Networked Animation: (Social) Network Analysis as a Tool for Investigating Animated Film Production Marco Bellano: Sound composition and animation: practice, aesthetics, methods
19:00	Dinner

